

Discovering your Gifts - Putting them to work

A Spiritual Gifts Assessment

Why this is a valuable tool for your Spiritual Journey:

Every follower of Jesus is called by God and gifted for ministry.

Discovering the way that God has gifted you is the first step in discerning the call of God on your life.

“In my own case, the discovery of gifts has clarified the ministry to which God has called me and opened new vistas of service. When I identified and named my spiritual gifts, it seemed as if all the contradictory pieces in my life suddenly fell into place. I found the key to what God was doing in and through my life.”

Howard Snyder - The Problem of Wineskins

Putting your gifts to work in service will lead to growth, purpose and satisfaction in your life. Putting your gifts to work in service will lead to growth, mission and unity in the church. As each member ministers through their God given gifts, the church is built up, and empowered to be God's sent people. Sent to bless God, each other, and the world.

“I believe that when I stand before God, God will simply ask me, ‘How did you use the gift of life I gave you?’” - Pope John 23

What is a Spiritual Gift?

Spiritual gifts are given by the Holy Spirit to a follower of Jesus Christ in order to demonstrate God's love to others. They are Spiritual because they come from the Holy Spirit... They are a gift because they are “grace” based. We do not choose them nor deserve them. Yet God freely gives them. Sometimes these gifts are displayed in very dramatic ways. But most often, they can be seen in the quiet efforts of Christians serving each other and the world.

“All these (Spiritual gifts) are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. 1 Corinthians 12:11

“Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.” 1 Peter 4:10

“So with yourselves; since you are eager for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in them for building up the church”. 1 Corinthians 14:12

Instructions for taking the assessment:

This is not a test. There are no right or wrong answers. Each question has 4 possible responses 1 = Never, 2 = Sometimes, 3 = Often, 4 = Always, choose the response that is most true of you and your life. Make sure to resist the temptation to check what you wish you were like. Sometimes your responses will be based on what you think about yourself and sometimes they will be based on what others have affirmed in you. One of the great realities of Spiritual Gifts is that they are affirmed in the community of believers... so thinking about what others say is a good way to check yourself.

BEFORE YOU START: Stop for a moment. Pray and take a breath.

Making sense of your assessment results:

Remember that an assessment can be a helpful tool but it is not the final word. The gifts that the assessment reveal must make sense to you and ultimately be affirmed in life by others in the church. Because the primary purpose of the gifts is to build up the church you should see this in action somewhere and have it affirmed by others. After you get your assessment results take time to pray and reflect about what you have learned. Does it seem true to life as you know it? Ask others you know if what you have discovered is true of how they see you. The fact of the matter is that you have been demonstrating the gifts that God has given you already. The reason to identify them is to strengthen them and use them more effectively. Simply put, knowing your gifts makes it easy to say “no” to some things so you can say “yes!” to the best things.

How many gifts does a person have?

When you take the assessment you will identify several gifts. Look for the one that stands out in front of the others. If you tie on two, think about which one you use the most. The gift that you use the most is called your primary gift. Primary gifts tend to dominate and utilize the other gifts that surround them. Secondary gifts support and direct our primary gifts...often directing the way in which our primary gift will function. For example you may find that your primary gift is encouragement and that a secondary gift is teaching. This probably means that your teaching will be encouraging in nature. Another example is that you may find you have the primary gift of administration and a secondary gift of shepherding. This may mean you will find it fulfilling to organize caring ministries in the church.

In addition to your primary you will find that the assessment identifies additional gifts as well. This is your gift cluster. A gift cluster is a series of gifts that are related to each other. A good question to ask is “What common thread do these gifts have in common?”

If you take the assessment and find you are tied in several gifts retake it and work more toward the extremes in the questions.

Are there more gifts than we see here?

Yes! In fact I am not sure that we can identify all the gifts. I think that it is safe to say that God gifts the church (people) in many and varied ways. The New Testament gift lists serve as a starting point rather than a narrowly defined list. The true test of any gift is seen in the building up of the church... the people of God. This assessment does not help someone identify gifts such as tongues, interpretation of tongues, healing, or miracles, due, in part, to the fact that if someone has those gifts they are probably aware already.

Now comes the fun part! Once you understand what you have discovered you start a whole new adventure of discovery.

1. Experiment:

Start to experiment with your gifts... find ways to use them. Try something... short term.

Here are some ideas to try; remember this is experiment time. You are not looking for a 5 year commitment at this point... start with a couple weeks or maybe some visits to observe what takes place and see how it feels to you.

2. Fill out a S.H.A.P.E. Profile:

The S.H.A.P.E. profile helps assess additional factors that will lead you to a healthy ministry match. Focusing on Spiritual gifts, heart and passions, abilities, personality and experiences, the profile takes the whole person into account when exploring ministry options. You can get a S.H.A.P.E. profile from the church office. A completed SAHAPE profile is required before coaching.

3. Then Ministry Connections Link (MCL):

The MCL (available on line and in the church office) is the most up to date list of ministries currently operating at Westminster. If you want to inquire about specific ministries or sign up to get involved simply fill one out. Once submitted a representative from the ministries that you check will contact you to answer any questions that you might have. The MCL is also used in the coaching time.

4. Meet with a coach:

Part of the Ministry placement process at Westminster includes trained coaches that are familiar with Giftedness and the ministries of the church. These individuals are qualified to answer your questions and help guide you into ministry areas that will match your gifts and interests. To connect with a coach please contact Robin Drew at rbdrew@verizon.net.
