SOUPER BOWL OF CARING

Sunday, February 8

This year our Souper Bowl of Caring offering will be going to the West Chester Food Cupboard. After both services on February 8, there will be youth standing in the Narthex with large soup pots to collect cash and checks (made out to "Westminster Presbyterian"). Our goal is to beat our previous year's total and reach $5,000 – we need your help! Any questions, contact our Director of Youth & College Ministries, Chris Clark at cclark@westminsterpc.org.

Boy Breaking Glass: A Vision for a Better Future Concert

4:00 pm Sunday, February 22 • Sanctuary

Celebrate Black History Month with Elevation, an all-professional, intentionally diverse vocal ensemble whose performances fuse traditional, classical choral music with jazz, Hip-Hop, R&B, storytelling, and spoken word.

This concert is inspired from Gwendolyn Brooks' searing poem, Boy Breaking Glass, about a young Black boy who breaks a window, not out of vandalism, but as an act of protest and creation. The shattered glass becomes his art, a demand to be seen and heard in a world that has erased him. Through music that spans genres and idioms, we ask: What might it mean to build a future from the fragments? To lift every voice—not in support of the status quo, but in pursuit of justice, belonging, and joy. Joining them for a closing set of gospel music are participants of the Come Sunday: Worship and Music That Moves Us workshop. Click here to buy tickets ($20/adult or $10/student).
