Knowing Christ, Making Christ Known

March 22, 2026
9:00 A.M. Traditional

Peace is not naïve; Peace is courage.

The numbers in today's headlines can make violence feel inevitable. Systems this powerful can make peace seem unrealistic. But history has never been shaped by systems alone. It has always been shaped by people whose moral imagination was strong enough to believe that violence was not the only option.

The world we are building today will be inherited by the children who survive it.

-Rev. Cameron Trimble (2026), "When War Becomes Cheaper Than Peace"

People: The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;
the Lord loves the righteous.

Leader: The Lord watches over the strangers, and upholds
the orphan and the widow.

People: The Lord will reign forever, for all generations.
Praise the Lord!

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God, you are the One who keeps faith forever, who gives us all we need and more. Yet we are a fearful people. We are a busy people. We are a distracted people. We fail to see the needs of those around us. We falter in following you when it becomes difficult. We ask for your forgiveness and for your guidance in following the path you have set before us. We pray in the name of Jesus, who walked among us and was handed over to be crucified. . . (time for silent prayers of confession).

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

* RESPONSE #582

and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

World without end, without end. Amen.

World without end, without end. Amen.

World without end, without end. Amen.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL GREETING – “The Peace of Christ”

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

.....Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

OFFERTORY

Covenant Prayer
Youth Choir

Marrolli

Creator, we belong to you, and you dwell within our hearts. Though the road be rough, we will follow you with the strength your grace imparts. Though we be brought high, though we be brought low, though we journey far from home, Let us always seek to grow in love, no matter where we roam.

Now let us reach out with loving hands to accept, affirm, embrace every child of God throughout the world and shower them with grace. And let us reach out with grateful hearts and praise our God above through our acts of light and justice as we warm the world with love.

Creator, let us understand that our covenant with you is a covenant with humankind to honor and pursue the road of Christ, through the rocky fields, to the broken and unshod. Let us heal with love, for each soul we meet is a precious Child of God. Now let us reach out with grateful hearts and praise our God above through our acts of light and justice as we warm the world with love.

 DOXOLOGY #606 Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

 UNISON PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Holy God, your gracious love pours out upon this world every day. In thanksgiving, we offer these gifts to you, fruits of our labors and signs of our gladness. We pray that you guide their use for the wellbeing of your people, the repair of your world, and our witness to your saving gift of Christ our Lord. Amen. (please be seated)

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him." So Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate^[a] said to them, "Behold the man!" When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you and power to crucify you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin." From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against Caesar."

When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone

Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover, and it was about noon. He said to the Jews, "Here is your King!" They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

We will walk through Jesus' journey through Holy Week and take home a devotional that you can do at home yourself or with your family each day of Holy Week.

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week Labyrinth: The labyrinth will be set up during Holy Week in Spellman Hall. All are invited to walk the labyrinth. This is an opportunity to reflect upon Jesus and the events of this week that lead to the cross. Walking the labyrinth is prayer in motion. Walking invites us to be open to God who is on the journey with us. There will also be stations around the outer perimeter of the labyrinth for reflection. There is a special Scripture and reflection for each day of Holy Week.

Labyrinth Schedule

Monday, March 30	12 PM – 4 PM
Tuesday, March 31	9 AM – 4 PM
Wednesday, April 1	9 AM – 4 PM
Maundy Thurs., April 2	9 AM – 9 PM
Good Friday, April 3	9 AM – 1:30 PM

(Doors to the building may be locked, just ring the bell and someone will be happy to let you in.)

Holy week is the most beautiful and the most important week of the church year. It is the drama of our salvation and our life. It is also a week of profound renewal. We renew our baptismal life as we see again the battle that God in Christ wins against all the powers of darkness and destruction in our world and in our lives.

A meaningful way of praying during Holy Week is simply to follow the labyrinth. All we must do in our prayer is to be open and receptive, content to follow and to receive what God chooses to give us. He allows himself to be taken on a journey by the Father. So let scripture and reflections take you on this road. Be attentive to it. Notice its details. Entrust yourself to it.

SECOND ANNUAL SNEAKER RECYCLING DRIVE KICKS OFF MARCH 20

From March 20 through April 17, Westminster will host our Second Annual Sneaker Recycling Drive in partnership with Sneaker Impact as part of the church's celebration of Earth Day. The drive offers a simple but powerful way for our community to reduce waste and care for the environment.

Each year in the United States, more than 300 million pairs of shoes are thrown away, and nearly 95% end up in landfills. Sneakers can take decades to break down, contributing to growing waste and environmental strain. By collecting used sneakers and sending them for reuse or responsible recycling, our community can help keep these materials out of landfills and give them a second life.

We welcome all sneakers—whether gently used or completely worn out. Pairs in good condition may be reused, while others will be responsibly recycled through Sneaker Impact’s programs.

Last year, Westminster’s community collected more than 750 pairs of sneakers, an incredible response for our first drive. This year, we’re hoping to go even further—and we invite everyone to participate.

Be sure to join us on Sunday, April 19 for Earth Sunday, when we’ll announce the total number of sneakers collected and award prizes to those who guessed closest to the final count.

This initiative reflects Westminster’s commitment as a PCUSA-certified Earth Care Congregation and offers a meaningful way to practice faithful stewardship and care for God’s creation—one pair of sneakers at a time.

Thank you for your support, if you have any questions please email Anne Jaques at ajaques14@outlook.com

At the beginning of this year, his 189-page novel "I Came to Play Your Game" was published and is available on Amazon and other online sites. He's been writing for more than 50 years and finally broke through with a fast-paced, funny, coming-of-age story with a sci-fi twist. Come hear how he imagined, wrote and sold his book at the ancient age of 82 years young. First time visitors are welcomed to enter by the single door just to the right of the main entrance. Please arrive at 9:30 for snacks, tea, & coffee with GREAT conversations. Craig Garner's presentation will be from 10-11 AM.
