GATHERING THOUGHT

“The most important single thing about the people of God is that they are there. They exist. They are, not because of favorable conditions in the empire, not because of certain perceived needs for which the church can provide a market, but because God called them out of nothing and made them a people.”

- Eugene Peterson, Five Smooth Stones for Pastoral Work

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION²

Holy and merciful God, in your presence we confess our sinfulness, our shortcomings, and our offenses against you. You alone know how often we have sinned in wandering from your ways, in wasting your gifts, in forgetting your love. Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we are ashamed and sorry for all we have done to displease you. Forgive our sins, and help us to live in your light and walk in your ways, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Savior...

(time for silent prayer)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

..... Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

OFFERTORY*Lord, Here I Am*

John Ness Beck

Master, thou callest, I gladly obey; Only direct me, and I'll find thy way. Teach me the mission appointed for me, What is my labor, and where it shall be.

Master, thou callest, and this I reply,
"Ready and willing, Lord here am I."

Willing, my Savior, to take up the cross; Willing to suffer reproaches and loss; Willing to follow, if thou wilt but lead; Only support me with grace in my need.

Living or dying, I still would be thine, Yet I am mortal while thou art divine. Pardon, whenever I turn from the right; Pity, and bring me again to the light.

 DOXOLOGY #300 *We Are One in the Spirit/ They'll Know
We Are Christians by Our Love*

*All praise to the Father, from Whom all things come,
and all praise to Christ Jesus, God's only Son,
and all praise to the Spirit, who makes us one:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love;
Yes they'll know we are Christians by our love.*

 UNISON PRAYER OF DEDICATION³

Merciful God, always out to save, friend of the suffering, foe of all who cause suffering, with these gifts we join your greater work in the world, confident of your final victory through Jesus Christ.
Amen.

When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly. But he went only as far as the king's gate, because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it. In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

When Esther's eunuchs and female attendants came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. Then Esther summoned Hathak, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

So Hathak went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king's gate. Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews. He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and explain it to her, and he told him to instruct her to go into the king's presence to beg for mercy and plead with him for her people.

Hathak went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai, "All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that they be put to death unless the king extends the gold scepter to them and spares their lives. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king."

When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai, he sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish."

Pastor: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

JULY JOURNEY SERIES: CROSS BORDERS

10:15 am Sundays, July 5-26 • Spellman Jr & Zoom

Jesus associated with many people that were unlike him: women who were undervalued in his culture, people from other lands or religions, people who were considered unclean due to illness or profession. Over and again, we find Jesus crossing human-erected borders and walls, challenging them in the name of love and justice. Cross Borders is about steps we take when we follow Jesus in reaching out to those who differ from us to build bridges of understanding, justice and love. Each week will be devoted to another step:

- July 5 - Leave your comfort zone
- July 12 - Embrace relationships
- July 19 - Challenge exclusion
- July 26 - Speak God's Language of Love.
